The Killbuck Savings Bank is the sponsor of the 4-H project books used by each 4-H member. Approximately 2,000 4-H projects are registered and completed by Holmes County 4-H youth ages nine through nineteen years old.

4-H Club community service mini-grants are sponsored by The Commercial and Savings Bank of Millersburg. Mini-grant applications are due June 1 of each year. If selected, completed projects will be funded.

HOLMES COUNTY JR. FAIR

I. GENERAL RULES

1. No Jr. Fair participant may exhibit in the same project area through different youth organizations or in more than one Jr. Fair.
2. In most committees members hold primary responsibility for their own projects.
3. Adult participation in project work should be limited to guiding and teaching.
4. Jr. Fair participants must successfully meet all requirements of their youth organization before being eligible to exhibit in the Jr. Fair.
5. The Sr. and Jr. Fair Boards and their representatives maintain the right to use any reasonable means to investigate any allegation, formal or informal, part of or pertaining to Jr. Fair matters.
6. Exhibits are released only upon permission of Sr. and Jr. Fair Department Superintendents or a veterinarian. Any animal released in case of an emergency or personal danger may not re-enter.
7. All exhibits must be in place by 8:00 AM Monday. ALL PROJECTS AND EXHIBITS WILL BE RELEASED AT 9:00 AM ON SUNDAY. DAIRY PROJECTS AND ALL MARKET LIVESTOCK WILL BE RELEASED TO THE BUYER AT 7:00 AM SUNDAY, and must be removed by 4:00 pm Sunday.
8. Livestock member project grades will be determined by an interview evaluation (Skill-a-thon), covering project book subject matter and basic 4-H/FFA knowledge.

All Jr. Fair exhibitors must attend scheduled county judging. If members are unable to attend scheduled county judging, Club advisors should evaluate projects. Projects must be evaluated and evaluation form submitted to the Extension Office before the scheduled county judging date.

Members who do not attend scheduled county judging are not eligible for County Awards or State Fair participation and will not receive a letter grade or ribbon, only a project completion ribbon will be given.

Member is not eligible for Outstanding Market Project Award or Outstanding Project Award. Member must go through County Judging or be evaluated to be eligible for the Junior Fair.

9. All 4-H and FFA projects must be identified on or before June 1 of the current year, and these projects will be automatically entered in the Jr. Fair. All livestock to be exhibited must be entered on a Fair Entry Form, for the purpose of pen assignments, by July 1. Fair Entry forms are available from the Extension Office or FFA advisors and are due in the Jr. Fair Board Office on or Before July 1 or space will not be available for exhibit. Individual species may have additional registration requirements which must also be met.

a. Fair Entry Forms: Each species has their own forms. One line per animal, per class. Department Section/Class Codes are listed in each individual species. Use these numbers, and the descriptions given, to complete your Fair Entry Forms.

b. 2010 FAIR ENTRIES PROCEDURE: Fair Entry Forms (for pen assignments) will be accepted at the Holmes Co. Fair Grounds Jr. Fair Board Office on the following dates and times: Mailed entries will not be accepted.

Tuesday June 8, 3:00 - 7:00 PM

Thursday June 17, 3:00 - 7:00 PM

Saturday June 26, 9:00 AM - NOON

Thursday July 1, 3:00 - 7:00 PM

LATE ENTRIES: Late entries will be accepted by appointment only July 2-15th during CSB business hours to Gail Cochran for $50.00 late fee per animal.

10. In all Jr. Fair shows the judge's decision is final.

II. ELIGIBILITY

1. The Jr. Fair is open to all boys and girls, at least age 8 and enrolled in 3rd grade, as of January 1st of the current year, through age 18 and those who turn 19 on January 1st of the current year, regardless of race, creed, national origin, and who are bona fide current members of a 4-H Club or FFA/FCCLA Chapter as of April 15 of the current year.
2. Members' entries must fit into the divisions allowed for their organizations by the Jr. Fair. (e.g., only 4-H members may exhibit in the 4-H project classes; only 4-H & FFA members may exhibit in the livestock classes; other specific project eligibility are listed by departments.)

III. CODE OF ETHICS

1. Participation in Jr. Fair should be considered a privilege. All Jr. Fair rules must be followed.
2. Be cooperative to all Jr. and Sr. Fair officials, volunteers, parents and members of the public.
3. Practice good sportsmanship in all fair events or activities.
4. Make quality your goal in all your exhibits. (Livestock exhibitors refer to OFACC policy statement on care of animals.)
5. Parental help or other adult assistance should be limited to guiding and teaching while not doing the actual work.
6. Dress for any Jr. Fair event or activity should be neat, appropriate, and follow rules of each livestock project department's dress code.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES & AUTHORITY

1. The County Fair is an event put on by the County Agricultural Society (Sr. Fair Board) in order to promote progress in community-wide interests of agriculture, education, arts, and sciences, and to improve the standard of living throughout the county.
2. The Jr. Fair is a consortium of youth organizations run co-operatively under the sanction of the County Agricultural Society for the purpose of showcasing educational youth programs throughout the county. The Jr. Fair Board utilizes authority vested in it by the Sr. Fair Board and the co-operating youth organizations to regulate Jr. Fair activities without restricting the ability of individual youth organizations to formulate their own policies for membership.
3. The 4-H program is a major component of the youth development program area of Ohio State University Extension, an outreach educational organization aimed at meeting the needs of county citizenry. All rules pertaining to 4-H program policies come under the jurisdiction of the Extension Educator in charge of the 4-H program. for each specie (901-19-01 through 901-19-38).
4. The FFA and FCCLA are educational programs run through the public schools, resources by the Ohio Department of Vocational Education. All rules pertaining to FFA and FCCLA policies come under the jurisdiction of the FFA and FCCLA advisors, respectively. All rules listed in the Jr. Fairbook and minutes are derived from this cooperative authority of the Sr. Fairboard and the youth organizations involved. Enforcement of such may be handled by any Jr. Fair official, including Jr. Fairboard advisors and Sr. Fairboard members.
5. Jr. Fair rules will be enforced, suspended, or added-to upon action by the Jr. Fair livestock committees with the approval of Jr. Fairboard advisors and Sr. Fairboard members for the best interest of the Fair.

V. PENALTIES

1. No person shall be allowed to exhibit in the Holmes County Jr. Fair, who has been banned for disciplinary or any other similar reason from other county, independent or State Fairs for the period specified by the ban.
2. All exhibitors must abide by the rules of the Jr. Fair or will be asked to leave the grounds, forfeit any premiums or awards, and will be subject to, further sanctions appropriate to the offending actions.
3. Tampering and/or misrepresentation as to breeding, age, ownership and other irregularity in showing will be considered fraud and deception. Any premiums, trophies, awards or sale money won by such exhibitor, will be withheld, OAC rules apply.
4. Any animal(s) that have been fitted in an unethical manner, or otherwise tampered with, will be disqualified from fair exhibition along with the exhibitor(s) involved.
5. Should fraud or deception and proof of wrong-doing be discovered after the animal(s) have been shown and prior to the sale, such animal(s) will not be permitted to sell. The animals placing next in line, shall not move up unless a line of succession was named at the original show (ie. 3rd, 4th, etc was chosen). Should violation be discovered after the sale, all sale money will be returned to the buyer, all premiums and trophies will be forfeited, and the animals placing next in line shall not move up.

VI. PROTEST POLICY

1. Any protest against a policy and or rule interpretation must be made in writing to the Sr. Fairboard secretary along with a deposit of $200.00. The deposit will only be returned if the protest is upheld.

VII. LIVESTOCK

1. Ownership

- a. All market livestock must be completely and fully owned by the exhibitor. All other animals exhibited must be completely and fully owned (as evidenced by bill of sale, registration papers or other documents) or leased, including all showing rights, and in complete possession and continual care of the exhibitor or their family unit on or after June 1 or by the date designated in the Jr. Fair rules under 9A. All livestock project lease documentation must be on file with Jr. Fair officials in the Extension office by June 1.
- b. No Jr. Fair participant may exhibit in the same project area through different youth organizations or in more than one Jr. Fair.

- c. If a Jr. Fair exhibitor is unable to show any of his exhibits due to conflicts in judging schedules, or unavoidable absence, that exhibit may be shown by another Holmes County Jr. Fair exhibitor.
- d. In no department can the same animal be shown both as market and breeding stock.
- e. If a Jr. Fair Exhibitor is unable to sell a market livestock project during the Holmes County Livestock Sale, prior arrangements must have been made with the Livestock Sale Committee. Those not making prior arrangements, will be unable to sell their project at the Livestock Sale.

2. Health Regulations

- a. Health regulations for Jr. Fair livestock shall conform with class regulations printed in this fairbook.
- b. All required health papers must be checked before animals are unloaded. The owners of Jr. Fair livestock exhibits must have their papers on the grounds at all time.
- c. For market livestock, the exhibitor is responsible for completing the drug use notification form (DUNF see 901-19-06), handed in at time of weigh in to a fair or species committee official. For lactating dairy goats or cattle, have DUNF into the secretary's office by Monday 8:00AM.

3. Animal Grooming/Fitting

- a. For rules in this area see "Tampering/Misrepresentaion" and the fairbook area for each specie. (See 901-19-01 through 901-19-38)

4. Member/Adult Involvement

- a. A junior livestock show exhibitor shall be responsible for the continuous care, grooming, and preparation of the livestock entered in the junior livestock show.
- b. An exhibitor may receive assistance in the care, grooming, and preparation of the livestock entered in the junior livestock show, provided that the assistance shall be limited to explanation or demonstration provided by the following: family members; household members; advisors or adult volunteers of 4-H or FFA in the exhibitor's club or county; vocational agriculture instructors; members of the exhibitor's 4-H club, FFA chapter, or other youth organizations; guest speakers of the 4-H, FFA, or other youth organizations.
- c. Any exhibitor using a person not specified in paragraph # 2 of this rule who provides assistance to a junior livestock show exhibitor shall register in writing with the fair board secretary by the 3rd Thursday in July. The responsibility to register rests with the exhibitor. Failure to register constitutes grounds for disciplinary action against the exhibitor. Assistance shall be limited to explanation and demonstration.
This list will be posted in the barns the day of the show with exhibitor name and who is to help them.
- d. Feed troughs, buckets, bedding, etc. are to be furnished by the exhibitor. The Fair Board will not furnish any bedding.
- e. All exhibitors must be present, directly involved, and actively participating during any grooming of their animal.
- f. No person is to coach an exhibitor while the exhibitor is showing or fitting in the show ring.
- g. All market livestock are prohibited from being in livestock-trailer and camper area.

5. Terminal/Partial Terminal Show/Sales
 - a. All market animal shows/sales shall be terminal or partial terminal (all swine will be terminal), all other market livestock except carcass class entries will be partial terminal.
 - b. All of the Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion market livestock animals*; those animals identified for carcass contests and all swine must be slaughtered at either an ODA or USDA licensed plant or sent to a livestock sale barn to be resold for slaughter only, within two weeks, unless otherwise determined by Fair officials. * Dairy feeders are not a finished market livestock project.
 - c. Market Livestock projects exhibited and meeting specie requirements must be sold at the Jr. Fair Livestock Sale (see 901-19-02 and 901-19-03).
6. Live Animal/Carcass Examination
 - a. All project animals will be subject to pre-fair inspection or testing at any time by fair or youth program officials or their representatives. Refusal to allow such inspection will disqualify the Jr. Fair exhibitor and the project animal in question from privileges at the County Fair.
 - b. The Jr. and Sr. Fair Board and its representatives maintain the right to inspect and/or detain any animal, or to use any reasonable means to investigate any allegation, formal or informal, part of or pertaining to Jr. Fair matters.
7. Tampering/Misrepresentation
 - a. TAMPERING/MISREPRESENTATION as to breeding, age, ownership, custody and any irregularity in showing will be considered fraud and deception.
 - b. To maintain a high degree of confidence and integrity in the livestock show, the agricultural society reserves the right to disqualify any animal fitted in an unethical manner and disqualify the exhibitor and the exhibitor's assistants who fined the animal involved.
 - c. Unethical and unacceptable practices as stated in 901-19-13, 901-19-33, and 901-19-38 printed in this book under ODA and Holmes County Fair Health Requirements will be cause for disciplinary action.
 - d. THE USE OF ALL UNAPPROVED DRUGS IS PROHIBITED. All exhibitors, their immediate family and any other parties involved in the unethical fitting and showing of an animal will be barred from exhibiting or showing at this fair and will forfeit all premiums, prize money and awards won in any Jr. Fair and/or open class divisions.
 - e. SHOULD FRAUD OR DECEPTION, AND PROOF, AS DETERMINED BY THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, BE DISCOVERED AFTER THE ANIMAL OR ANIMALS HAVE BEEN SHOWN AND PRIOR TO THE SALE, such animal(s) shall not be permitted to sell. (See Penalties.)
 - f. SHOULD VIOLATION(S) BE DISCOVERED AFTER THE SALE, all sale money shall be returned to the buyer and the animal, carcass or carcass value shall be returned to the exhibitor. All placings in show will stand. No animal will move up. Any carcass suspected of being tampered with or suspected of containing drugs will be detained until the investigation is completed.
 - g. IF THE CARCASS IS CONDEMNED at the packing plant for any reason, it shall be grounds for disqualification in the on-foot and carcass division of the show. Additionally, all premiums and sale money shall be forfeited and the loss of the animal be incurred by the exhibitor.
 - h. All ODA and Holmes County Fair Health Requirements printed in this book are mandatory. ODA Rules can be viewed at: www.holmescountyfair.com
8. Rule Violations
 - a. In the question of a rule violation, the following due process will be used: The exhibitor and/or parties involved will be questioned by Fair officials. If it is felt a violation has occurred, Fair officials will make recommendations to the designated committee of the agricultural society which is appointed to that particular department; after the committee hears the allegations and/or evidence, they will decide if the case should be brought before the full Board of Directors.
 - b. In the decision of allegations being brought before the Board, all parties involved will be notified of a meeting date with all parties having the right to present their views and/or evidence. Upon hearing the case, the Fair Board will make a ruling.
 - c. When satisfactory evidence has been obtained by the Fair Board that any of the livestock rules have been violated, the exhibitor and/or exhibitor's family may be barred from the showing in any future agricultural fairs. The minimum number of years for a disbarment is three (3) years before the right to a review. In case any premium shall have been awarded to animal(s) shown in violation of this rule, the Fair Board will require the exhibitor to refund all premiums, trophies, awards, ribbons and sale money under each violation. Unless fraud and/or deception are involved, all championship placings stand.
9. Identification
 - a. All market livestock exhibited in County Jr. Fair Shows must conform to the county animal identification guidelines as given below.
