ENTRY RULES

- All project members and exhibits must follow all Holmes County Jr. Fair General Rules and conform to Livestock Exhibit Health Requirements listed previously in the Fair Book.
- All livestock, to be exhibited, must be entered on an entry form by July 1st. 2010 FAIR ENTRIES PROCEDURE: Fair Entry Forms (for pen assignments) will be accepted at the Holmes Co. Fair Grounds Jr. Fair Board Office on the following dates and times:
Mailed entries will not be accepted.

TuesdayJune 8.....	3:00 - 7:00 PM
ThursdayJune 17.....	3:00 - 7:00 PM
SaturdayJune 26.....	9:00 AM - NOON
ThursdayJuly 1.....	3:00 - 7:00 PM

on or before July 1 st or space will not be available for exhibit.
Club guidelines must be met to show and sell.
- Livestock member project grades will be determined by an interview evaluation, Skill-A-Thon, covering project book subject matter and basic 4-H/FFA knowledge. All Jr. Fair exhibitors must attend scheduled county judging, if unable to attend, club advisors may evaluate projects. Projects must be evaluated and grade(s) submitted to the Extension Office before the scheduled county judging date. Members who do not attend scheduled county judging are not eligible for Outstanding Market Livestock Awards
- All Market Swine project members may show and sell one animal but may tag two animals. Centralized tagging will take place on Saturday, May 15th, 2010 and on Saturday, May 22th, 2010 at the Holmes County Fairgrounds. They will both begin at 8:00 AM and end at 11:00 AM Your hog MUST be tagged on one of these dates to be eligible to participate in the Holmes County Jr. Fair. If, at any time after tagging, the hog loses the ear tag, the member must contact the Swine Committee (listed above) immediately for instructions.
- To be eligible to compete for Grand Champion or Reserve Grand Champion, animals must weigh between 220 and 285 pounds at official weigh-in. This weight range will be in force for the 2010 fair.
BARROWS ONLY.
- Swine pens will be monitored daily for cleanliness, Friday and Saturday included. A sign will be placed on the pen if it is found to be unacceptable. The first time will be a warning, the second time, will lead to a one year suspension from exhibiting a swine project at the Holmes County Jr. Fair. A time will be written on the notice when it is posted and the exhibitor will have 24 hours to clean the pen. The notice must remain on the pen until it has been cleaned.
- Market Hog classes will be determined, based upon weight at official weigh-in by the Swine Committee. For health requirements refer to the ODA rules 901:1-18-10 in the front of this book.
- Grooming Practices On show day, all hogs may be washed with soap or shampoo and water, before the wash racks are closed. Any substance enhancing the appearance of the hog, except water, will not be acceptable and may be grounds for disqualification.
- All hogs must be weighed-in Sunday, August 15th, 2010 between the hours of 4:00 PM and 9:00 PM. Each participant may unload, weigh, and exhibit one animal only. Once an animal has been on the fairgrounds, it must stay. NO EXCEPTIONS. HOGS WILL BE WEIGHED ONE TIME ONLY.
- Dress Code for showmanship, judging and sale: Tie shoes or boots (no open toed shoes) long pants (no shorts) and plain sleeve or sleeveless shirts (no tank tops). No writing on shirts unless it is 4-H, FFA, or Jr. Fair Board shirt. You will not be allowed to participate until all dress code requirements are met. Exhibitor's number must be displayed on middle of exhibitor's back.
- Wash racks will be closed 15 minutes prior to morning showmanship, evening judging and the sale.
